

I Vijay Bahadur Yadav District Panchayat President Lucknow, I and with my family since independence, are been working for the people of the country with the love and blessings of the public of the country. it did not matter if I am in the post of the village head district panchayat president or the post of block chief.

I constantly stay with the public and listen to their problem and try my best to solve it, Our community build drain, road, hand pump, and build an arrangement for matrimonial and religious programs in the village.

The system of the school has been done for the provision of community toilets and electricity, it is my constant endeavour to fulfil every hope of the people and as much as I can for the public, I arrange the gathering for people time to time to listen to their problems.

And I also try to solve their problem, it is my endeavour that every person in the village gets all the facilities that they have the right to necessity.
